ATTENTION CHAOS! FANS! WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Notice anything strange in your local comicbook store recently? Well we sure are writing on the wall. Since last November we have seen comic shops selling more and more limited comics and less of our stuff. Missing Chaos! readers who went to our staff in the cold and unable to get what they want. We're getting a lot of angry and confused complaints about the lack of our stuff in comic shops.

Are you going to let anyone tell you or your staff "you're right to want Chaos!" Are you gonna be beaten down by the "I'm a fan" & "I support it"? Are you tired of your staffs not being able to tell them what's what? Are you tired of being Chaos! in the masses? "I'm not writing!" I truly hope you help us in every aspect that you can. If you're not writing, then you're not writing. I hope you help us in every aspect that you can. If you're not writing, then you're not writing. I hope you help us in every aspect that you can. If you're not writing, then you're not writing.

I truly hope you help us in every aspect that you can. If you're not writing, then you're not writing. I hope you help us in every aspect that you can. If you're not writing, then you're not writing. I hope you help us in every aspect that you can. If you're not writing, then you're not writing.

We truly want to carry the torch. & merch you demand from us. What can we do? Fight back!

Help is here:

1. Supply your comic shop and let them know you want Chaos! Comics and merchandise. Be specific. Let them know you order and pre-order comics because they help out other Chaos! Comics. Even if they don't want to order it, DEMAND that they do!

2. Use the Chaos! feedback catalog. For Diamond Comic Distributors I would strategically decide what you purchase and let them know you want it!

3. Sound the word of alarm. If there's a comic store in your area that's not carrying Chaos!, then let them know you want it!

4. If you need help with your store and merchandise after using these methods call the toll-free line 1-888-chaos!-123, and we'll personally help you get it!

5. Sign this in the white envelope. It's us vs. them - really. They never understood us. They think we're weird, and we are, but together we can show them our power. Sound them out!

Seems to Chaos!

-Brian Pulido

BRING THE APOCALYPSE!

She's used it to rend her enemies asunder, and now you can have it as a conversation starter on your desk or bookshelf! It's Lady Death's sword, Apocalypsis, the latest 12" mini replica of a Chaos! sword coming at you from Eternal Toys and Diamond Select. Perfect in its attention to detail, this baby will be the pride of your collection. The sword is a point for point precise replica, featuring the Chaos! symbol at the base of the blade. If hits shops in June, so keep an eye out - tell your retailer you want copies of all these specials, and you won't be left for an answer!

DON'T FORGET TO RE-IMAGINE!

Remember Fenda next month is Chaos! Re-Imagined, featuring new tales of the origins and adventures of Lady Death, Pangaea, and Chesty! We've lined up some other talent, including Team Red Star Jeremy Palmisano, Amaris, Conner, and Dan Jolley, so don't miss out - tell your retailer you want copies of all these specials, and you won't be left for an answer!

STATIC-X ROCKS CHAOS!

We warned you it was coming - now we can finally announce that Static-X has signed with Chaos! to produce a comic book series based on the band's songs and visual imagery.

If you haven't heard of them, you haven't been living the Rock'n'Roll MetalFest! Fenda - this is one of the top industrial metal bands out today.

They're toured with Ozzy and sold over a million CDs, and have songs on both the Resident Evil and Queen of the Damned soundtrack albums.

Kicking off in July, Static-X #1 will be set in the techno-doom future, where the world is ruled by The State. There is no capitalism, there is no freedom, there is only The State.

Wayne, Ken, Tony and Tripp, the members of Static-X are cybernetically enhanced workers, leading insignificant lives as slaves to The State. However, anomalies intrude, reminding them of a time they worked together, maybe instigating a revolution. Is this the truth or another implanted memory? Will they learn the real story before it's too late or will they become the mindless agents that The State created them to be?

Static-X #1 is written by Brian Pulido, with art by David Breuer and color by Jay Fotos. And you can get your fill with either a band photo cover or an art cover, or a Collector's Edition cover with foil embossed autographs

MORE CHAOS! STATUES

Hope you've got your pennies saved Fenda - coming this fall are two new Chaos! statues - Lady Death and Cremator! Both are gorgeous, with extreme attention paid to making sure the smallest details show, from the contour of the muscles in Lady Death's logo to the veins in Cremator's forearm. We've worked with some great sculptors over the years, but we just have to say, these are the finest sculptures we've produced to date.

And check it - Lady Death strikes her pose while standing in Lucifer's hand, her cape off to one side, her costume slightly wrinkled as if it follows the curves of her body. Likewise, Cremator stands atop a mound of tombstones and skulls, power radiating from his form. A balls-out in each hand his body covered with scars, Cremator is the determined warrior, ready to fight and fight, and fight, never to know peace.

Check out www.chaoscomics.com for a handful of sneak peak images, and keep your eye to the ground about when you can order these beauties.

of each band member. As a special bonus, a CD will be included with a remix of the song "This Is Not" and special interview footage of the band - all un-available anywhere else.

This one's gonna be big Fenda - we've already got members lined up on MTV, Billboard.com, and a host of other music-related outlets. Ain't gonna be any Static-X or rock fans out there who don't know about this comic, so tell your friends, wake the neighbors - Static-X is coming to Chaos! Demand your retailer to order Static-X #1!

WHO LIVES IN THE DWELLING?

Brain's back at it again! This July he's returning to his own instant Pulled Label Graphics for yet another story: The Dwelling!

It's an experiment of sorts, as Brian planned this one as a pitch for a movie. And you know Brian - if he can't make a horror movie better than what's out there, why even bother? With that in mind, The Dwelling takes concepts like Mike Myers and Freddy Krueger and turns them on their respective ears. Brian knows that while things that go bump in the night can be frightening, the truly horrific lies within.

Want to tease? Check it - Aaron and Emily, a pair of introverted practitioners, discover a cave outside the dustbowl town of Apache, Arizona. Inside, they encounter The Dweller, an ancient evil that bonds their minds and forces them to live their fears. Though they escape to town, the Dweller pursues them relentlessly, eroding their confidence, putting plausible lies into everyone who crosses his murderous path.

Illustrated by Brian Gethals, we're battling The Dwelling and the Dweller are on the fast road to becoming part of the new horror pantheon for the millennium. Pre-order this one, Fenda - it's going to go fast when it hits shops in July!

Can these outsiders teens unlock the hero within themselves and over come their fears or will they, like everyone else in town, fall prey to The Dweller's call? This is a fast-paced thriller in the tradition of Nightmare on Elm St. and Jeepers Creepers. Over 40 pages of story & art. Recommended for mature readers.

ICP RETURNS WITH MR. JOHNSON'S HEAD

You can't keep the Clown away for long. With Insane Clown Posse, The Pendulum wrapped, it's a matter of time until the next Chaos! comic starring Detroit's foul-mouthed face-painted rappers, and it's coming this August.

This time out, ICP writer Jessie McCormick has gotten his inspiration from the single Mr. Johnson's Head. Yeah, it's a wild ride, but hey, ICP are a wild couple of guys, and Jessie is up to the challenge of taking their lyrics and writing an entire one-shot around them.

And you thought Jessie had ICP doing in The Pendulum was twisted... just you wait.

Penciled by newcomer Gerardo Santanola, ICP Mr. Johnson's Head is gonna be one of the killer cool events of your summer!
